Application Certification

I understand that this form is not an offer of housing. Based on this application, I understand that I should not make any plans to move. I understand that it is my responsibility to inform Soldier On of any change of address, income, reasonable accommodation, property selection and/or family composition or my application will be withdrawn. I hereby certify that the information furnished on this application is true and complete, to the best of my knowledge and belief. Inquiries may be made to verify the statements herein. All information is regarded as confidential in nature, and a consumer credit report and a Criminal Offenders Record Information (CORI) report or other criminal background check may also be requested. I understand that any false statement or misrepresentations are criminal offenses punishable under state and federal laws. I also understand that providing false statements or information are grounds for rejection of my application or termination of tenancy or program participation.

Signed under the pains and penalties of perjury.

Soldier On, acting as management agent for the Property does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, age, familial status, children, marital status, veteran status or membership in the armed services, the receiving of public assistance, or physical or mental disability in the access or admission to its programs or employment, or in its programs' activities, functions or services.

Upon request to the Property Manager, you have the right to receive a Tenant Selection Plan which details the tenant application process, including eligibility and screening requirements, for occupancy in the property.

The initial rent-up will be done by lottery. Applications received by June 26, 2017 will be reviewed for completeness and eligibility and placed into all lottery pools for which they qualify, based on the application and the property’s Tenant Selection Plan.

Completed application must be returned to:

Soldier On, Inc.
421 N. Main Street, Building 6, Leeds, MA 01053
Notice of Right to Reasonable Accommodation

Soldier On, Inc. ("SO") and the property do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, familial status, children, marital status, veteran status or membership in the armed services, the receiving of public assistance, or physical or mental disability in the access or admission to its programs or employment, or in its programs' activities, functions or services.

Under applicable state and federal laws, SO and the property provide “reasonable accommodations” to residents, applicants and household members who are disabled and if the reasonable accommodation is necessary to provide an equal opportunity to use and enjoy the housing. *Disabled is defined as having a physical or mental impairment, that substantially limits one or more major life activity, has a record of such impairment, or is regarded as having such impairment.

A reasonable accommodation is:

- A change in the rules or policies or how we do things that would give you an equal chance to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- A change in your apartment or a special type of apartment that would give you an equal chance to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- A change to some other part of the housing site that would give you an equal chance for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- A change in the way we communicate with you or give you information.

A reasonable accommodation may not be granted if it poses an undue financial or administrative burden on the property, requires a fundamental change in the nature of the program, and is structurally infeasible.

If you or a member of your household have a disability or handicap, and think you might need or want a reasonable accommodation, you may request it at any time in the application process or after you have moved in. You can request a reasonable accommodation by contacting John Lawson at 421 N. Main Street, Building 6, Leeds, MA 01050 or by calling (413) 835-1387.

An applicant household that has a member with a disability/handicap must still be able to meet essential obligations of tenancy. They must be able to: pay rent, care for their apartment, report required information to management, avoid disturbing their neighbors, etc. This requirement takes into consideration whether any requested reasonable accommodation would permit the applicant to be considered eligible.

THIS FORM TO BE COMPLETED BY APPLICANT/TENANT

You have applied for, or currently reside in, a rental housing unit located in a development operating under the "Low-Income Housing Tax Credit" (LIHTC) Program of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The collection of certain tenant data is authorized by the Housing & Economic Recovery Act of 2008, and will be furnished to the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD). Each household must be offered the opportunity to disclose their race, ethnicity, and disability status. Parents/guardians are asked to disclose on behalf of all children in the household who are under the age of 18. There is no penalty for those households who do not wish to provide the requested information. However, all adult members (18 years or older) must sign/date at the bottom of this form as proof that the option to disclose was made available.

(LIHTC Program ~ Revised 2/15/2017)
The following racial and ethnic definitions are modeled after the OMB-approved form, “Race and Ethnic Data Reporting Form” (HUD-27061), used by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD):

A. Household members can select one or more of the following applicable racial definitions:

- White - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East or North Africa.
- Black or African American - A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Terms such as “Haitian” or “Negro” can be used in addition to “Black” or “African American.”
- American Indian or Alaska Native - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America), and who maintains tribal affiliation or community attachment.
- Asian - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian subcontinent including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.
- Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.

B. Household members can select one of the following applicable ethnic definitions:

- Hispanic or Latino - A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. The term “Spanish origin” can be used in addition to “Hispanic” or “Latino.”
- Not Hispanic or Latino - A person not of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

The following definition of “disabled” comes directly from the Fair Housing Act:

C. Per the Fair Housing Act, the definition of disabled is:

- A physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities; a record of such an impairment; or being regarded as having such an impairment. For a definition of “physical or mental impairment” and other terms used in this definition, please see 24 CFR 100.201, available at: http://www.fairhousing.com/index.cfm?method=page.display&pasename=regs_fhr_100-201

- “Handicap” does not include current, illegal use of or addiction to a controlled substance.

- An individual shall not be considered to have a handicap solely because that individual is a transvestite.

The housing credit agency administering its low-income housing credit program must, to the best of its ability, provide this disability status information, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1437z-8. However, it is the tenant’s voluntary choice whether to provide such information, and questions to the tenant requesting the information must so state. If the tenant declines to provide the information, the housing credit agency shall use its best efforts to provide the information, such as by noting the appearance of a physical disability that is readily apparent and obvious, or by relying on a past year’s information. For purposes of gathering this information, no questions with respect to the nature or severity of the disability are appropriate.
Notice of Occupancy Rights Under the Violence Against Women Act

To all Residents and Applicants
The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the Internal Revenue Service are the Federal agencies that oversee the LIHTC program is in compliance with VAWA. This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A HUD-approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA."

Protections for Applicants
If you otherwise qualify for assistance under the LIHTC program, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Residents
If you are receiving assistance under the LIHTC program, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under the LIHTC program solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, resident, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator From the Household
Soldier On, as Management Agent for the property, may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, Soldier On must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, Soldier On may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

1 Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.
2 Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.
Moving to Another Unit
Upon your request, Soldier On may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, Soldier On may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.

2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit a form, or may accept another written or oral request.

3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

Soldier On will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and the location of any move by such victims and their families.

Soldier On’s emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and Soldier On must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

Documenting You Are or Have Been a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking
Soldier On can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to “certify” that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from Soldier On must be in writing, and Soldier On must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. Soldier On may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to Soldier On as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if Soldier On asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form given to you by Soldier On with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
OMB Approval No. 2577-0286
Expires 06/30/2017

- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.

- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.

- Any other statement or evidence that Soldier On has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, Soldier On does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If Soldier On receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), Soldier On has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, Soldier On does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality
Soldier On must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

Soldier On must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of Soldier On (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

Soldier On must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. Soldier On, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to Soldier On to release the information on a time limited basis.
- Soldier On needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires Soldier On or your landlord to release the information.

VAWA does not limit Soldier On’s duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Resident Eligible for Occupancy Rights Under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated
You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, Soldier On cannot hold residents who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to residents who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, Soldier On can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other residents or those who work on the property.

If Soldier On can demonstrate the above, Soldier On should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws
VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

Non-Compliance with the Requirements of This Notice
You may report a covered housing provider’s violations of these rights and seek additional assistance, if needed, by contacting or filing a complaint with Mass Housing, One Beacon Street, Boston, MA 02108 or US Housing & Urban Development (HUD), 1 Washington Street, Boston, MA 02108.

Attachment: Appendix C: Certification Form HUD–5832 (Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking and Alternate Documentation)
Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Use of This Optional Form: If you are seeking VAWA protections from your housing provider, your housing provider may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In response to this request, you or someone on your behalf may complete this optional form and submit it to your housing provider, or you may submit one of the following types of third-party documentation:

(1) A document signed by you and an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you have sought assistance relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse. The document must specify, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking occurred and meet the definition of “domestic violence,” “dating violence,” “sexual assault,” or “stalking” in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR 5.2003.

(2) A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or

(3) At the discretion of the housing provider, a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or tenant.

Submission of Documentation: The time period to submit documentation is 14 business days from the date that you receive a written request from your housing provider asking that you provide documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Your housing provider may, but is not required to, extend the time period to submit the documentation, if you request an extension of the time period. If the requested information is not received within 14 business days of when you received the request for the documentation, or any extension of the date provided by your housing provider, your housing provider does not need to grant you any of the VAWA protections. Distribution or issuance of this form does not serve as a written request for certification.

Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall be kept confidential and such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Employees of your housing provider are not to have access to these details unless to grant or deny VAWA protections to you, and such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to by you in writing in a time-limited release; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.
TO BE COMPLETED BY OR ON BEHALF OF THE VICTIM OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING

Public Reporting Burden: The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response. This includes the time for collecting, reviewing, and reporting the data. The information provided is to be used by the housing provider to request certification that the applicant or tenant is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The information is subject to the confidentiality requirements of VAWA. This agency may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget control number.
